Government Diploma in Interior Designing & Decoration (ID) & (IN) programmes

Interior Design:

Interior Design pedagogy is an integral knowledge that deals designing of Interior Built Spaces. It is the art and science that deals with space planning within the building with appropriate synergy to cater to the purpose, anthropometrics, ergonomics, aesthetics, balance between natural and artificial resources etc. to suit the user. Such Space planning may relate to a small residential space to a villa, a shop to a department store, individual's office to a multinational company, a café to a specialty restaurant, a reception area to a star hotel lobby.
